

Chris Migala, CPA

CFO

IREM® (Institute of Real Estate Management)

Chicago, IL

Chris is IREM's Chief Financial Officer and leads the finance and information technology teams. He has over 10 years of experience managing teams in the association industry. Before coming to IREM, he held managerial positions at SmithBucklin – the world's largest association management company – as well as CCIM Institute.

Chris holds a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) license issued from the state of Illinois and a Bachelor's of Science in finance from Arizona State University. He was also the recipient of the USAE and Association Forum's Forty Under 40 Award in 2017.

Chris lives in Park Ridge, Illinois with his wife, Jessica and their two sons. He's an avid golfer, certified scuba diver, and lover of animals. His family has a pet beagle-mix named Millie.