

Kimberley Jackson, CPM®

2024-2025 IREM® Regional Vice President
Region 4 (FL, GA)
Stream Realty Partners
Atlanta, GA

Kimberley Jackson, CPM®, is the 2024-2025 regional vice president for IREM (Institute of Real Estate Management) Region 4, encompassing chapters in Florida and Georgia. She joined Stream Realty Partners in 2016 and currently spearheads the Georgia market as Managing Director of Property Management. Kim's responsible for the oversight of Atlanta and Savannah property management leadership, strategic direction, and overall growth of Stream's Southeast division in property management.

With over 20 years' experience in the commercial real estate industry, Kim's wealth of knowledge allows her to successfully oversee the daily operations of property portfolios in the entire Georgia market, develop lasting relationships with tenants and clients, while continuing to expand Stream's reputation for providing above and beyond, top-tier service.

Before joining Stream, Kim received many awards and designations including the BOMA International TOBY Award on a downtown high-rise building, earning LEED silver and achieving all points in all categories. She continues to be long-term IREM member, holding the roles of Austin Chapter President, Regional Vice President of Region 7, and other national roles. In addition, she was recognized as a "Woman of Influence" from GlobeSt's Real Estate Forum.

She's a proud advocate of diversity and mentorship, and serves as co-chair for the People of Stream Committee at Stream Realty Partners. Most importantly, she's the proud mother of a daughter, a high school biology teacher with a master's degree in education and leadership, and a son who is in his third year of residency to become an orthopedic surgeon.
